memorandum is to inform you of updates to New York State Education ED) procedures on the permissibility of the testing accommodation "tests with disabilities on the Grades 3-8 New York State English Language (Grades 3-8 ELA Assessments). This memorandum replaces guidance by NYSED on testing accommodations for students with disabilities.

2017 administration of the Grades 3-8 English Language Arts (ELA) lents with disabilities whose Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) or nmodations Plans (504 Plans) document that tests be read aloud (by ader or technology) must be provided this testing accommodation in the specifications in the IEP/504 Plan. In previous years, only directions students on the Grades 3-8 ELA Assessments; no other portion of the ad aloud regardless of the circumstances. Additionally, this testing ill be provided to students upon declassification with documentation mmodation will continue.

Background

on any annually and revised as necessary to meet the changing needs of each student. It is critical that a student's testing accommodations are recommended based on current information related to his or her present levels of performance.

The following examples, although not exhaustive, illustrate how "tests read" may be documented on an IEP/504 Plan for individual students with disabilities in grades 3-8 based on the unique needs of each student.

Sample documentation of testing conditions appropriate for a student with a disability that severely limits or precludes the ability to decode print who would receive the "tests read" accommodation on the Grades 3-8 ELA Assessments:

Testing Accommodation	Testing Conditions	Implementation Specifications
Tests read	For all State and local tests,	Text-to-speech software may including tests of reading	be used to provide this comprehension	accommodation.

Sample documentation of testing conditions appropriate for a student with a disability that moderately impacts the ability to decode print who would not receive the "tests read" accommodation on the Grades 3-8 ELA Assessments:

Testing Accommodation	Testing Conditions	Implementation Specifications
Tests read	For all State and local tests, except tests of reading	Human reader comprehension

Thank you for your attention to this important matter. Questions regarding this memorandum may be directed to the Office of Special Education Policy Unit at (518) 473-2878 or speced@nysed.gov.

Testing Accommodation Decision-Making Tool for "Tests Read"

The chart below may be used by school personnel to facilitate collaborative decision-making related to the recommendation of "tests read" (via human reader or technology) as a testing accommodation for students with disabilities in graces 3 through 8. The questions in this tool should be considered each time a student's individualized education program (IEP) or Section 504 Accommodations Plan (504 Plan) is reviewed to determine the appropriateness of this accommodation. After completing the chart, check the box below indicating the recommended testing accommodation for the Committee on Special Education (CSE) or Section 504 Committee to review and consider when developing the student's IEP/504 Plan. This tool is for local use, only. Do not submit this form to the New York State Education Department (NYSED).
