

made and is currently under review by the New York State Education Department.

- A revision requested by this charter school to amend the charter school's mission from "Our mission is to inspire leaders by setting high academic standards, promoting solution-orientated thinking, and embracing the cultural diversity of our community." to "Our mission is to inspire today's learners to become

