

The Office of Bilingual Education and Wardsdages of the New Yorktaste Education Department presents:

Standards in Action: Interpersonal Communication

Presentes: Bill Heller, D. Lori Langer deanirez and Dr Joanne

O'Toole

Date & Time: Tusday, February 27th, 202

Webinar presentes:

Bill Heller has taught in public elementary, secondary, committy college and undergraduate classrooms for years, including 24 years teaching Spanish at Perry High ScholoHe has been an ethods and Spanish instructor at SUNY cheseo since 2001. Heat requent presenter of workshops, webinars and keynotes. Bilderved as Orderence Chair for the 2018 Norheast Conference (NECHL) and is currently maember of the Executive Board and Ordent Advisory Panel for Worldahguages tathe New York State Eduction Department (NYSED).

Dr. Lori Langer de Ramibægan her language teaching career as a teacher of Sanish, Frech and ESIShe hods a Maste's Degree in Applied Linguistics and a Docator in Curriculum and Tæching from Teachers College, Columabiliniversity. She is current the Director of World and Classac Languages & Global Language Initiatives at the Dalt School in New York City. Lairis the author of bookstexts and articles about language teaching and earning and multicultural education. She presents workshopat local, regional and national coeffences and works with teachers in schools throughothe U.S. and around the worlde website (www.miscositas.com) offers free materials for teaching Chinese, English, Frenchand Spanish.

Dr. Joann®'Tooleis a Professor offlodern Language Education in the Curriculum and Instruction Departmentat SUNY Oswego. Slavai member of the Executive Committee of the YSED World Languages Content Advisory Panleand the Principal Invatigator of the NYS World Language Standards Initiatve. Joanne has served in several world language deadership positions in the NYSAFLT Pinteent and NECTL Director, and is a regular parenter at national, regional, state and bcal conferences. Joanne a certified teacher fo Spanish and taught Spanif for 16 years prior to retering post-